Trees of Hope

TURNING THEIR TALENTS

to decorating Christmas trees, local interior design professionals came up with a bevy of one-of-a-kind creations for the 2012 Festival of Trees benefitting Phoenix Children's Hospital. On the pages ahead, we share examples of their artistry and resourcefulness. —LJB

Dubbed A Touch of Sparkle, this playful tree by Debra May Himes, ASID, combines an abundance of sparkling ornaments and lights with gift-filled stockings. The creation culminates with a spray of flocked tree branches; adorning its base is a customized teddy bear atop a hand-painted rocking horse.
